

Prayer Calendar

August
2021

Sunday 1st

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands." (Psalm 19:1) As many in the UK take holiday over the summer, praise God for the opportunities we have to enjoy his glorious creation.

Monday 2nd

Praise God that with restrictions easing, the Evangelical Church in North Macedonia has been able to hold several youth summer camps (pictured).

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10

Tuesday 3rd

Please pray for Myanmar as it battles a third wave of Covid-19, with cases rising daily. Lockdowns are in place and there are dwindling supplies of oxygen tanks and vaccines.

Wednesday 4th

Give thanks that Potter's House in Guatemala have just launched their new community centre in the Western Highlands, enabling them to serve 25 more children.

Thursday 5th

New single mothers and their children will be joining Beginning of Life's Early Learning Centre this month in Moldova. Pray that their time together will be a blessing.

Friday 6th

Today we give thanks for Hope for Africa Mission's Grace School in South Africa and all the students it is providing a home and education for.

Saturday 7th

Praise God that seven children from Mahima Homes and 73 children from the JKPS sponsor-a-child programme in India have passed their Secondary Board exam.

Sunday 8th

Pray for HEAL Africa as they help to reunite families and protect displaced children, following May's eruption of Mount Nyiragongo just outside the city of Goma, DRC. May the Lord comfort families who are desperately searching for one another.

Monday 9th

The team in Albania ask for prayer as repairs are made to the church in the town of Vlocisht, following earthquake damage. Pray the project would go smoothly and they would be able to obtain the necessary building permit.

Tuesday 10th

Praise God that the ChrisFon team is helping brick kiln families in Pakistan to better manage their finances. Through this, families learn how to save for the future, and make progress towards freedom from bonded labour.

Wednesday 11th

Today we have the joy of meeting together in person for our monthly team meeting. Pray for focus and wisdom as we share ideas and make important decisions.

Thursday 12th

The number of Covid-19 cases remain high in Nepal leading to tough restrictions, including the shift to online classes for children. Pray for the Lord's provision as most people do not have access to computers, tablets or mobile phones for online learning.

Friday 13th

Pray for the Lord's leading as the Free Evangelical Association of Lebanon trains and equips leaders through their Bible training colleges in Lebanon and Jordan.

Saturday 14th

Join us in celebrating the appointment of a new trustee to the WorldShare board - Victoria. Praise God for bringing Victoria forward and the many skills she will be able to share.

Sunday 15th

Pray for the church planters, who Cahaya Suku equip, as they share the good news of Jesus with unreached communities in Indonesia.

Monday 16th

Some of the children who Potter's House in Guatemala serve are sick, making it difficult for them to attend school. Please pray for their health to be restored.

Tuesday 17th

Praise God that Beginning of Life's young leaders team in Moldova reached over 100 children through their recent outreach camps.

Wednesday 18th

Word of Hope in Myanmar has shared the sad news that many pastors have passed away from Covid-19 amidst a third wave of the virus. Pray for all those who are grieving.

Thursday 19th

Ask the Lord to grant the ChrisFon team wisdom as they look for ways to motivate people to learn to read and write, among the brick kiln communities in Pakistan.

Friday 20th

Praise the Lord for the young man who is serving a three month trial period with the Medical Ambassadors Foundation in Albania, assisting with church ministry. He has been a big help over the last couple of months.

Saturday 21st

Pray for the safety of JKPS staff, community development workers and volunteers in India as they continue to travel to cyclone-affected regions of West Bengal with Covid-19 and cyclone relief.

Sunday 22nd

Next month, Pastor Pau from Word of Hope in Myanmar will be joining us for our next online Ministry Meet-up LIVE. Pray for the Lord's leading as everyone involved prepares.

Monday 23rd

Join the PiFò Haiti team in praising God for the life of Jeannine (pictured), the mother of one of their school directors, who has passed away. She was a shining light for Jesus and helped with their food programmes. May her family know the Lord's comfort at this time.

Tuesday 24th

Today we praise God for the generosity of our child sponsors, enabling children in some of the poorest parts of the world to thrive.

Wednesday 25th

Pray for peace in South Africa, where Hope for Africa Mission are based. In the midst of a severe third wave of Covid-19, violence has erupted, with looters plundering and destroying towns and cities.

Thursday 26th

Several of the Evangelical Churches in North Macedonia will soon be holding baptism services. Pray for the candidates and their families.

Friday 27th

Give thanks that Mahima Homes in India were able to provide summer camps for the young people they care for. They had a great time learning songs, crafts, games and how to serve their community.

Saturday 28th

Pray for hope to be renewed as people across Turkey and West Asia tune into Kanal Hayat's Gospel-centred broadcasts.

Sunday 29th

Praise God that the Evangelical Mission for Assistance to Fishermen has been delivering oxygen and food relief to remote fishing communities in Brazil (pictured). In Lábrea they arrived just as the oxygen supply was on its last day, helping to save 12 people's lives.

Monday 30th

The continuing unrest in Haiti, following the assassination of the president last month, has led to increasing prices and turmoil. The island of La Gonâve, where PiFò Haiti serves, relies heavily on the mainland for supplies. Please pray for the team and community as the fear of hopelessness looms so closely.

Tuesday 31st

Pray for the young girls Wakisa Ministries in Uganda support. Due to pandemic restrictions, schools have been closed for over a year. Many children have now dropped out of school all together, leaving girls vulnerable to exploitation. As a result, teen pregnancies have increased.
