

January 2024 Prayer Calendar WorldShare

Monday 1st

As we begin 2024 and look forward to a year of change, thank God that He never changes! Pray that He would direct our paths and lead us in the way of truth.

Tuesday 2nd

Praise God for all the Christmas celebrations enjoyed by our ministry partners. Give thanks in particular for JKPS' Christmas programmes which served lots of vulnerable children and adults in India, bringing hope and joy.

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Hebrews 13:8

Wednesday 3rd

Give thanks to God for WorldShare's new staff member, Katie, who starts this week as our Assistant Communications Officer. Pray that she would settle in quickly and use her skills to be a blessing to WorldShare.

Thursday 4th

Please pray that the families who attended the Evangelical Church in North Macedonia's Christmas evangelism events would come along to church & open their hearts to Christ.

Friday 5th

ChrisFon ask that we pray for safety and peace for Afghan believers who feel stranded inside Afghanistan and fear their lives are at stake.

Saturday 6th

Word of Hope would like prayer for wisdom and guidance from God as they start a new year of serving children and Bible students in Myanmar.

Sunday 7th

Thank God that, in the midst of many trials following the earthquake in Turkey last year, Antakya Christian Church has seen a growth in numbers of people turning to Jesus. Pray they find comfort & hope in Him.

Monday 8th

Please pray for the WorldShare staff team as they have a vision and planning day today, looking to the year ahead. Ask God to guide their decisions and unite them as a team so they can all use their gifts for His glory.

Tuesday 9th

We have been praying for over a year for the children in Vashtemi, Albania, who had stopped coming to church because of the influence of a Muslim leader. Praise God - most of them are now back!

Wednesday 10th

PIFò Haiti would like us to pray for discernment as they make a decision on whether to drill a well to fix the ongoing water issues at their garden project.

Thursday 11th

Praise God that High Priest Academy in Ghana is able to give their students regular nutritious meals thanks to the generosity of WorldShare supporters.

Friday 12th

Please pray for the ongoing safety of HEAL Africa's staff members & patients as violent protests continue to break out in Goma, DR Congo.

Saturday 13th

Thank God for the money raised for Beginning of Life's parenting classes through our Freedom Gifts leaflet. Ask God to use the funds to enable the team to reach even more vulnerable families in Moldova.

Sunday 14th

Pray for CEO Andrew as he speaks at Bentley Pentecostal Church in Doncaster this morning, that he would encourage and inspire the church family. May God stir hearts to pray for and give to the work of WorldShare.

Monday 15th

As school restarts for children in Guatemala this month, please pray that Potter's House would have the resources needed to provide bags of school supplies to all 294 children they support.

Tuesday 16th

Praise God that the Evangelical Church in North Macedonia ordained two men last month to serve in their churches in Shtip and Ohrid. Pray that Ivan and Vlakto (pictured) would serve with wisdom and humility.

Wednesday 17th

Please pray for safety for Word of Hope's Bible College students as they travel to the college by bus in Myanmar. Also, ask God to build them up in confidence to study and to teach His Word.

Thursday 18th

Hold the WorldShare trustees in your prayers as they meet today to review the last year and look forward to the next. May God give them insight and discernment.

Friday 19th

Antakya Christian Church in Turkey would love us to pray for God to provide people who can support them with their outreach and discipleship.

Saturday 20th

The final term of JKPS' Diploma in Ministry course and the Community Transformation Programme course begin this month in India. Pray that those studying would work hard and learn well, to the Glory of God.

Sunday 21st

Thank God that children supported by Potter's House in Guatemala have got the opportunity to learn a second language and receive IT training. Pray that gaining these skills would help each child have better career prospects.

Monday 22nd

Medical Ambassadors Foundation in Albania would like us to pray for their Community Health Evangelism programme being undertaken in six churches in Bulgaria. Pray this would lead to people wanting to take it back to their own communities.

Tuesday 23rd

Please continue to pray for Beginning of Life to be granted permission from the Department of Education to access schools. Their trafficking prevention classes are invaluable for young people in Moldova.

Wednesday 24th

Kanal Hayat have an exciting programme ready to be released but are waiting for permission to use certain clips. Pray this is granted quickly.

Thursday 25th

Praise God for ChrisFon's three-day staff conference held in Lahore, Pakistan, last month. All thirteen of the staff were Hindu background evangelists who were able to travel to Lahore from other districts. Everyone returned with renewed vision and mission!

Friday 26th

Please pray for a young woman at Wakisa Ministries in Uganda who recently delivered a stillborn baby. Ask that God would use the team to support her well and that He'd pour down His comfort and healing over her at this heartbreaking time.

Saturday 27th

HEAL Africa would like us to continue to pray for all those in DR Congo who have been forced from their villages by the ongoing conflict and are living in the internally displaced people camps (many of them for almost a year now).

Sunday 28th

Give great praise to God! Thanks to the generosity of WorldShare supporters, Pifò Haiti have been able to complete their mountain school building project. The classrooms are already in use, as pictured.

Monday 29th

Please continue to hold in your prayers those supported by First Hope Association in Turkey as they face cold temperatures. Pray everyone who needs it would be given access to stoves, heaters and winter clothing.

Tuesday 30th

Thank God that all the students who completed their basic education at High Priest Academy in Ghana have passed their exams and been placed in the senior high schools of their choice.

Wednesday 31st

Praise God for giving WorldShare a faithful team of prayer warriors. As we look to make prayer even more of a focus this year, ask God to show us how we can encourage more supporters to join us in prayer.

