

Prayer Calendar

May 2021

Saturday 1st

The team in Albania have seen new people attending church in the villages they serve. Pray the Lord would open their hearts to the Gospel.

Sunday 2nd

Give thanks for the loving care, nutritious meals and education that Good Friends of Nepal provide to vulnerable children through their hostels (image right).

'So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.'

Isaiah 41:10

Monday 3rd

We are currently on the look out for new trustees. Pray for people to come forward that have a heart for the Gospel, and valuable skills to share.

Tuesday 4th

Praise God for Potter's House in Guatemala - they have just celebrated 35 years of the Lord blessing them, as they serve those living among landfill sites and in poor rural areas!

Wednesday 5th

The Mahima Homes team in India give thanks for the vital knowledge they gained at a recent Trauma-Informed Care training session. Pray for them as they apply their learnings.

Thursday 6th

Today we ask for the Lord's guidance as we virtually gather together for our monthly team meeting, and pray we can soon meet in person again.

Friday 7th

Please pray for God's protection over our ministry partners in India and the people they serve. They are now battling a second wave of Covid-19. Some staff and their family members have tested positive and are in quarantine.

Saturday 8th

Join Hope for Africa Mission in South Africa in praising God that improvements are being made to Grace Christian School classrooms, with electronic equipment being added to enhance learning.

Sunday 9th

PiFò Haiti ask us to continue praying for their country. Gangs have been daily robbing and kidnapping. An orphanage was recently attacked outside Port-au-Prince, a guard was killed, and three people were sexually assaulted. Nobody feels safe.

Monday 10th

We give thanks for the stories shared by our ministry partners in the latest edition of our magazine, Window. Please pray people would be encouraged by these, as they receive the magazine this week.

Tuesday 11th

Please pray for the Lord's provision for pastors of the Evangelical Church in North Macedonia, many are struggling financially.

Wednesday 12th

Beginning of Life in Moldova continue to work with women, many of whom are at risk and in a vulnerable situation. Please pray for a change in their situations, and for a breakthrough in their relationship with Jesus and their children.

Thursday 13th

Last month we were praying for HEAL Africa's Chaplaincy follow up project in DRC. Praise God that this was able to safely take place and the chaplains who took part were left encouraged and equipped.

Friday 14th

Today we praise God for all those who faithfully sponsor a child through our ChildAid programme, enabling children across the world to reach their God-given potential.

Saturday 15th

Pray for the many refugees, who the Africa Inland Church in South Sudan support, to know the Lord's comfort as they rebuild their lives.

Sunday 16th

The Evangelical Mission for Assistance to Fishermen is continuing to provide vital supplies to those battling Covid-19 in remote areas of Brazil. Pray for the Lord's provision.

Monday 17th

Praise God that the 1st and 2nd year students studying at JKPS's Bethel Training Institute in India have successfully completed their online end of term exams.

Tuesday 18th

Please pray for the Lord's leading as the Free Evangelical Association of Lebanon equip leaders and missionaries through their training colleges in Jordan and Lebanon.

Wednesday 19th

We give thanks that health is improving among the brick kiln communities of Pakistan, as ChrisFon shares vital knowledge.

Thursday 20th

The Evangelical Church in North Macedonia has restarted many of its teenage activities. Please pray for the Sunday school teachers in Skopje, who have just completed their training, as they begin working with young people.

Friday 21st

Please pray for the many homeless people in Southern Africa, where Hope for Africa Mission works, as winter approaches. Pray for their health and the provision of winter clothes and blankets.

Saturday 22nd

Tomorrow is the International Day to End Obstetric Fistula, we give thanks for all that HEAL Africa in DRC are doing to care for women in poverty who are suffering from what is a tragic, and highly preventable injury.

Sunday 23rd

Praise God that despite the new lockdown in Moldova, Beginning of Life were able to continue their teenage ministry (image above), combining both in-person small groups, and online engagement.

Monday 24th

Lift up to the Lord the Cahaya Suku team in Indonesia as they spend time ministering to Muslim communities, sharing the Gospel and building relationships over many years.

Tuesday 25th

Praise God that two of the young men our ministry partners in Albania have been training, recently preached at a service, and continue to seek after the Lord for their future.

Wednesday 26th

Please pray for two of the girls Mahima Homes in India support, Tamanna and Gungun, who have very suddenly been taken away by the government, leaving everyone heartbroken.

Thursday 27th

Potter's House in Guatemala City ask us to pray for those who are working in the landfill site. The rainy season has now begun which makes the site an even more dangerous place to work.

Friday 28th

Pray for God's guidance as the Kanal Hayat team work to use WhatsApp effectively for follow up, as they serve Turkey and West Asia.

Saturday 29th

Monal Irame (image left), one of the PiFò Haiti leaders, who is also an evangelist, has a daily radio programme on the island. His message of hope and salvation is heard by hundreds of people each day. Join Monal in giving glory to God for this wonderful opportunity.

Sunday 30th

The troubles in Myanmar continue but we praise God that in the midst of them the students of the Hope Bible College, run by our ministry partners, were able to finish their course and graduate. Pray for the graduates as they apply their learnings, and for peace to prevail in Myanmar.

Monday 31st

Please pray for ChrisFon as they follow up with those they have been supporting over the last two years in the brick kilns of Pakistan. Through their ministry they equip people with the tools to free themselves from generations of bonded labour and share the love of Jesus.
