Prayer Calendar

WorldShare

Sat 1st: Moldova

Please pray for the Urban Kids programme & Toddler Studio as they continue throughout the summer, supporting preschool children and helping toddlers prepare for kindergarten in a safe and caring environment.

Sun 2nd: North Macedonia

Give thanks that Pastor Robert, who moved to Radovich with his family six years ago to start a local church, was officially ordained last month. He was also awarded a diploma for theological education. Please pray for Robert & his wife, Krasi, as they continue to serve in Radovich.

and the fatherless;
uphold the cause
of the poor and the oppressed."

Psalms 82:3 (NIV)

Mon 3rd: Albania

Ask the Lord to prepare the hearts of the children and youth as they get ready to go to MAF's summer camp. Pray that it will not only be a time of fun, but also of growth and encouragement.

Tue 4th: Haiti

Give thanks that the team has connected with a supplier on the island of La Gonave who will provide seeds for the community gardens instead of having to have them shipped from the mainland. This is a HUGE answer to prayer!

Wed 5th: Uganda

Praise God for three days of Leadership Transition training at Wakisa Ministries. Staff engaged with sessions on alignment of values, team interdependence, and building a culture of trust. The Board of Directors focused on strategy and governance.

Thur 6th: UK Office

Please pray for the staff team, that they will each get the opportunity to be refreshed and recharged over the summer period. Also pray that they will continue to look to God for everything they need.

Fri 7th: Myanmar

Pray for God's ongoing protection for the staff at Word of Hope and all the children in their care. Pray too that the new dormitory project would continue without any hitches or delays.

Sat 8th: South Asia

Thank God for the recent 'Disciple Making Disciples' training. Pray that those who were trained will share their testimony boldly, connect it with God's story, & multiply disciples who are faithful and committed to Christ.

Sun 9th: Albania

Give thanks that the team had the joy of holding Vacation Bible Schools (VBS) in two of the larger villages they serve. Children from the wider area were also invited to join, giving them a special opportunity to learn about God, make new friends, and have fun.

Mon 10th: North Macedonia

The summer social project in Zhabeni to plant vegetables is going well. It's not just about vegetables; it's also about the fellowship happening on the ground. Pray that the veggies will grow well and that families in need will be blessed.

Tue 11th: DR Congo

Please pray for continued vigilance as HEAL Africa monitor the Ebola outbreak in DRC. Pray they will know God's protection over their staff & patients as well as God's provision through this extended time of conflict.

Wed 12th: India

Thank God for the smooth running of the Community Transformation Programme classes and the Healthy Church training. Please pray for the upcoming Healthy Church Vision Casting meetings across churches and fellowships.

Thur 13th: Guatemala

Please pray for the spiritual development of the Treasures as many join devotionals, read the Bible on their own, and memorise Scripture. Ask for deep roots in Jesus and wise mentoring from the Potter's House team.

Fri 14th: Uganda

Last month we prayed for Sarah as she traced her family. Praise God with her that she has been reintegrated with them and now has a safe place for both her and her baby.

Sat 15th: Gaza

Pray for families, the elderly and all those living in tents or crowded displacement camps in Gaza. Ask God to provide food, clean water, shelter and protection.

Recent baptisms in North Macedonia

Sun 16th: North Macedonia

Praise God for recent water baptisms: 7 people from Veles and 2 people from Skopje were baptised in nearby rivers, and two people from Soulcraft in Skopje were also baptised! What an abundance of God's blessings.

Mon 17th: India

Give thanks that a new worker has been identified to lead JKPS's community development initiatives in a West Bengal province. Please also pray for the volunteer training that is taking place in August.

Tue 18th: South Asia

Please pray for deeper intimacy with God for those taking part in programmes run by our ministry partner in South Asia. Pray also that they will live out a lifestyle of prayer, worship, and obedience.

Wed 19th: Ghana

Praise God that despite recent heavy rains and flooding, everyone at High Priest Academy remained safe. Thank God for answering our prayers.

Thur 20th: Guatemala

Thank God for Americo, Giovanni, and their older brother, whose lives inspired the beginning of the Nutrition Programme at Potter's House. Their story became the starting point for responding to a need that continues to transform lives today.

Fri 21st: Haiti

Please pray for PiFò Haiti's project manager, Emerson, as he continues to navigate a difficult family situation. He knows God is guiding his steps & he has hope for what is to come. Pray that he continues to feel well supported and uplifted in prayer.

Sat 22nd: Türkiye

Please pray for Kanal Hayat's fundraising efforts and the recruitment of new staff members. Both of these are challenges that they are currently facing. Pray that God will supply all their needs.

Sun 23rd: North Macedonia

Pray for the churches that are undergoing building projects in Prilep, Strumica & Bogdanci & those needing more space in Veles and Kavadarci. Please ask God to provide finance, wisdom and perseverance for everyone involved.

Mon 24th: UK Office

Pray for CEO, Andrew, as he promotes his sponsored skydive to kick off WorldShare's Miles for Myanmar autumn fundraising campaign. Please pray for lots of sponsors and that others will get involved in fundraising too during September & October.

Tue 25th: DR Congo

Give thanks that Phase 5 of the Follow Up Trained Chaplains Project run by HEAL Africa was delivered successfully during an extremely difficult period of deep insecurity and displacement. The project trained 125 frontline & community leaders against a target of 80 and a further 212 leaders benefited from short introductory sessions.

Wed 26th: Gaza

CMG continues to provide hot meals for those in need. Some may see this as just another meal, but in Gaza today, a meal means life. For people who have lost their homes, their livelihoods, and many of their loved ones, a simple plate of food becomes a lifeline and a source of hope.

Thur 27th: Haiti

Please pray for the PiFò Haiti team as they follow up on the school visits made by Wendy while she was in Haiti. The needs are great and overwhelming, but they trust that God will give them wisdom and discernment for the future.

Fri 28th: Ghana

Ask God to provide child sponsors for the remaining children who need support at High Priest Academy. Pray for compassionate hearts so that these dear children have the chance of a good education.

Sat 29th: Uganda

Give thanks for the amazing testimonies of four girls who were each supported by Wakisa Ministries through their pregnancies. Aisha and Carol will be starting university soon and Ruth and Fatuma will be graduating next January.

Sun 30th: Moldova

Thank God for four Urban Teens day-programmes for groups of 20 to 40 teenagers. Alongside English, mental maths, games, cooking, and creative activities, relationships grew even stronger resulting in more opportunities to share about Jesus.

Mon 31st: Myanmar

Give thanks for the seven Bible students at Hope Bible College who are being supported by WorldShare donors. Pray for them as they have started their new academic year.
